

SECOND INTERNATIONAL NANOTECHNOLOGY CONFERENCE ON COMMUNICATIONS AND COOPERATION

Speaker's Biography

Tatsuo Morimoto, Nanotechnology Materials and Monodzukuri Technology, Science and Technology Policy Bureau, Cabinet Office, Government of Japan

Since January 2004, Mr. Morimoto has been Director of Science and Technology Policy Bureau, Cabinet Office, Government of Japan. He is responsible for planning and implementing R & D strategy for Nanotechnology and Materials and Monodzukuri Technology area.

He majored in material science in the University of Tokyo and received master of degree in engineering in 1977.

He joined in Mitsubishi Heavy Industries, Ltd. in 1977. He mainly engaged in the development of metallic materials and composite materials for high temperature use such as petrochemical industries, electric power plants and aero, space-craft. After becoming Deputy General Manager of Advanced Technology Research Center, he was assigned current position.